

I would ask that New Jersey's Do Not Call law remain as is. The law has served to enhance the lives of many citizens, and allowing certain exemptions will decrease that effect.